

4 Most Important Things To Know About Your Business Coach:

Dan L. Zaleski CPC, MBC

Dan L. Zaleski

1

Business Coach Executive

In 2012, Dan Zaleski founded a business growth coaching firm called the Business Coach Company®. As CEO he has developed and executed a successful regional marketing strategy, implemented CRM systems and sales process, developed a proprietary service-delivery methodology, and recruited local executive leadership talent to help service his clients.

2

Continuous education and training

Dan was first certified by the Fowler International Academy of professional coaches in Spokane Washington USA. Mr. Fowler was the founder of the Sylvan Learning Centers® where Dan was designated with the CPC Certified Professional Coach and the MBC Master Business Coach designations. He was also trained by Mr. John Grant in Australia with the YB12 coaching system. He currently works with two coaches for ongoing training & support, one in Washington D.C. and one in Texas USA

3

He is here to help businesses

Dan works with business owners with employees and trains coaches in the proven systems to increase impact in our local market. Working and networking with the top coaches in the world to implement up to the minute strategies to move his clients to attain their goals. He is a member of the Coaches Coach® Group with over 4,600 coaches worldwide.

4

Husband, Dad, Grandfather

Happily married to Diana since 1982 with two grown sons and three grandsons to date. His priorities include excellent health, family and a never-ending improvement in business coaching systems and leadership. Besides the earned designation of master business coach, he is known around the world as master Dan an 8th degree black belt.

“In business for yourself, but not by yourself!”

Business Coach Company®

Schedule A Complimentary Coaching Session Today:

www.danzaleski.com

+1 250 212-7054